

WRITTEN TASKS – RUBRIC
	PASSED		PASSED WITH COMMENTS		TO BE IMPROVED
TASK	The text fully addresses all parts of the task.	The text sufficiently addresses all parts of the task.	The text partially addresses the task.	The text responds to the task in a minimal way.	The text does not adequately address the parts of the task or is completely unrelated to the task.
ORGANIZATION &amp; CONTENT	The ideas presented are relevant, fully developed and well-organized.	The ideas presented are relevant, adequately developed and organized.	The ideas presented are relevant but some may be inadequately developed / unclear.	The text presents some ideas but they are limited and not sufficiently developed.	The text does not organize ideas logically and has no or very little control of organizational features.
LANGUAGE	Very appropriate command of language structures. Word choice is rich and varied.	There is an adequate command of language structures but with some errors. Word choice is clear and reasonably precise.	There is some command of language structures with errors. Word choice is precise to some extent.	There is an emerging use of language structures. Sentences reflect little variety in kind. Word choice is basic.	There is an inadequate and / or inaccurate use of language structures that obstruct meaning. Word choice is vague.
MECHANICS	Punctuation, capitalization and / or spelling are appropriately used or have few errors.	Punctuation, capitalization and / or spelling is accurately used most of the times.	Punctuation, capitalization and / or spelling is well used in general.	Punctuation, capitalization and / or spelling are inaccurately used with frequency, which may interfere with the understanding of the message.	Punctuation, capitalization and / or spelling are inaccurately used in the text, which interfere with the understanding of the message.